

April 4, 2022

SPRING INTO HEALTH: FDOH LEE TO HOST MINORITY HEALTH FAIR ON APRIL 23, 2022

Contact:

Imani Stafford, Public Information Officer

Lee-PIO@flhealth.gov

239-332-9653

Fort Myers, Fla. — April is National Minority Health Month, and the Florida Department of Health in Lee County (FDOH Lee) would like to stress the importance of furthering the health of racial and ethnic minorities and reducing health disparities.

FDOH Lee would like to invite all residents and visitors to “Spring into Health” this April at our Minority Health Fair.

Event Details:

Minority Health Fair

Saturday, April 23, 2022

10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

FDOH Lee: 3920 Michigan Avenue, Fort Myers

Benefits to the Community:

The event will include free health screenings, youth activities and educational resources from various FDOH Lee departments.

The event will also feature FDOH Lee programs, including but not limited to:

- Tobacco Prevention and Cessation
- Students Working Against Tobacco
- Healthiest Weight Florida Nutrition and Physical Activity
- Overdose Data to Action
- Mental Health First Aid
- Breast and Cervical Cancer
- Public Health Preparedness

Attendees will be able to connect with programmatic representatives to learn more about FDOH Lee programs and services.

“We encourage all residents and visitors to join us as we observe National Minority Health Month,” said Angela Smith, BS, MHA, Health Officer, FDOH Lee. “After all, a healthy me, healthy you, makes for a health community, too.”

About the Florida Department of Health

The department, nationally accredited by the Public Health Accreditation Board, works to protect, promote and improve the health of all people in Florida through integrated state, county and community efforts.

Follow us on Twitter at @HealthyFla and on Facebook. For more information about the Florida Department of Health please visit www.FloridaHealth.gov